

Track and report on anything!

Build your network.

Quality and compliance issues

Peer comparison metrics

Feedback & suggestions

Business development opportunities

Call partners & referral patterns

Productivity and provider performance

Action plans

Business Intelligence on the talent in your network is more important than ever. Having a healthy list of providers is vital to your financial health and the health of your insured. Today's Network Relationship Management model has reached a new level of sophistication which demands attention to every aspect of the business of delivering healthcare services. Are you ready? Do you have the tools in place to help you forge relationships that, in turn, allow you to increase revenue and improve customer satisfaction?

The most comprehensive software available today for physician relationship management, KiProviderNet allows you to track and report on every initiative key to growing and securing your network. With this technology at your fingertips, you can see at a glance what is working. You will feel as if you have an entire team behind you— accessible anywhere, 24/7. So keep your docs happy. Call us for a free demo to find out how — 888.550.0556.

Network Relationship Management & Analytics